MAKING BENEFICIAL LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Early detection and information on risk reduction is a benefit offered to the citizens of Butler County for a healthier life through the many opportunities to participate in the Community Health Fairs offered/sponsored by the Butler County Cooperative Extension Service FCS Agent. Screenings offered were blood cholesterol, blood glucose, blood pressure, skin cancer, vision, hearing, prostate cancer, flu shots, and body composition. 468 individuals participated in the screenings held throughout the year. During the screenings, one individual identified severe hearing loss in her left ear, another was found to have very low blood sugar, while another was found to have blood pressure so high that immediate attention was required.¹
