SPOTLIGHT ON ...

SECURING FINANCIAL STABILITY

In these tough economic times it has become a necessity to stretch family food dollars. The Bracken County Family and Consumer Sciences Extension Agent taught lessons in ten counties to promote wise use of coupons and menu planning. The classes reached 195 participants. A local coupon exchange club was started, which taught how to plan meals using sale items, find coupons online, and reduce food bills. In the 12-week follow-up, positive comments were received: "Couponing keeps me in my budget." "I use grocery savings to purchase better quality meats that I normally could not afford." Consumers reported savings as much as 100% on their food costs and up to $40 in one trip.
