SPOTLIGHT ON ...

SECURING FINANCIAL STABILITY

The Estill County Extension Office developed an educational program, which relies on the money-saving tips and planning ideas in the MoneyWise newsletter, to help families deal with the sluggish economy by learning to use income wisely. MoneyWise offers tips, such as how to save money on grocery and personal shopping, utilities, fuel, and gardening. Of the over 150 households that receive it by mail: 75% report a 20% savings on utilities by conserving energy. Sixty percent report cutting grocery bills in half using shopping and coupon tips from the newsletter. Some report saving as much as 30% on fuel and car insurance by carpooling, limiting trips to town, and combining errands into one trip.
