SPOTLIGHT ON ...

OUR PEOPLE

ACCESSING NUTRITIOUS FOODS

he Ohio County Cooperative Extension Service is committed to providing nutrition education programs to low income families and individuals who may be struggling with economic hardship due to the economy and/or lack of personal or financial resources. The goals of programs are to educate limited resource families with young children and SNAP-Ed (formerly the Food Stamp program) clientele to plan nutritious meals on a limited budget, acquire safe food handling practices, improve food preparation skills, and change eating and activity behaviors to enjoy a healthier lifestyle. As a result of these programs, 420 people were encouraged to access nutritious foods at local farmers markets and 4,014 youth were taught the basics of making nutritious food choices.
