SPOTLIGHT ON ...

NURTURING FAMILIES

Prenatal and newborn healthcare was identified as a topic important to Union County residents. To address that, community partners developed the sixth "World's Greatest Baby Shower," a free, educational program that covered infant dental health, breastfeeding, and bathing a newborn. Sixteen expectant mothers, ages 15-40, attended. The educational event was sponsored by West Area Health and Education Center, Union and Henderson County Methodist Hospitals, Union County Schools, Green River District Health Department, USES Family Resource Center, Community Education, Cooperative Extension Service, and Union County Extension Homemakers. Exit evaluations showed that 96% of the participants learned new skills and received useful information to care for their newborns.
