SPOTLIGHT ON ...

MAKING HEALTHY LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Kentucky's rates of obesity are on the rise. "Weigh Down Washington County," a weight-loss program that encourages physical activity, has been presented for nine years to address this problem on a local level. Family and Consumer Sciences Agent, with assistance from area and local health departments, SNAP-Ed Assistant, and community education director promoted, organized, and developed the program. During this year's 8-week program, 55 people participated in the challenge. Financial and personal goals were used as incentives for weight loss during the program. At the end of the challenge, the group lost 415 pounds and eleven participants lost 7% of their body weight.
