Building Strong Families FOR KENTUCKY 2016

OUR FOCUS

Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) Extension is committed to improving the health and well-being of individuals and families in Marshall County. To help Kentuckians strengthen their financial, physical, and social well-being, our educational programs focus on:

- Making Healthy Lifestyle Choices that influence health and well-being
- Nurturing Families as they cope with fewer resources and more demands
- Embracing Life as We Age to live independently longer
- Securing Financial Stability in a turbulent economic period
- Promoting Healthy Homes and Communities that recycle, reduce waste, and protect our environment
- Accessing Nutritious Food that is affordable, available, and safe
- Empowering Community Leaders as we all work to sustain and improve our communities

In 2014-2015, Family and Consumer Sciences Extension made 6,229 contacts with Marshall County individuals and families.¹

OUR PEOPLE

SPOTLIGHT ON...

WHERE DOES YOUR MONEY GO?

In Marshall County, 104 families have participated in the Managing in Tough Times program Where Does Your Money Go? It aims to improve people's well-being by starting a conversation about basic money management skills and strategies. It tackles issues that make spending plans ineffective, such as failing to include periodic expenses like insurance, property taxes, or holiday gifts. Participants have said they believe it is important to have an ongoing discussion about money management and the importance of having a spending plan when families are struggling in tough economic times.
