Building Strong Families FOR KENTUCKY 2016

OUR FOCUS

Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) Extension is committed to improving the health and well-being of individuals and families in Perry County. To help Kentuckians strengthen their financial, physical, and social well-being, our educational programs focus on:

- Making Healthy Lifestyle Choices that influence health and well-being
- Nurturing Families as they cope with fewer resources and more demands
- Embracing Life as We Age to live independently longer
- Securing Financial Stability in a turbulent economic period
- Promoting Healthy Homes and Communities that recycle, reduce waste, and protect our environment
- Accessing Nutritious Food that is affordable, available, and safe
- Empowering Community Leaders as we all work to sustain and improve our communities

In 2014-2015, Family and Consumer Sciences Extension made 34,465 contacts with Perry County individuals and families.¹

SPOTLIGHT ON...

HERITAGE SKILLS CAN SUPPLEMENT INCOME

With the loss of coal-related jobs, many families need to supplement their income. To address this issue, the FCS agent taught heritage skills workshops, which encouraged people to pass down skills to the next generation. The workshops included quilting, knitting, crochet, tatting, rug making, Swedish weaving, embroidery, and broomstick lace. Participants learned to make items for personal use, as gifts, and for sale at craft fairs. Past participants have sold items that they learned to make at the workshops and the workshops have helped some participants supplement their family income by using the skills they learned.
