Building Strong Families FOR KENTUCKY 2016

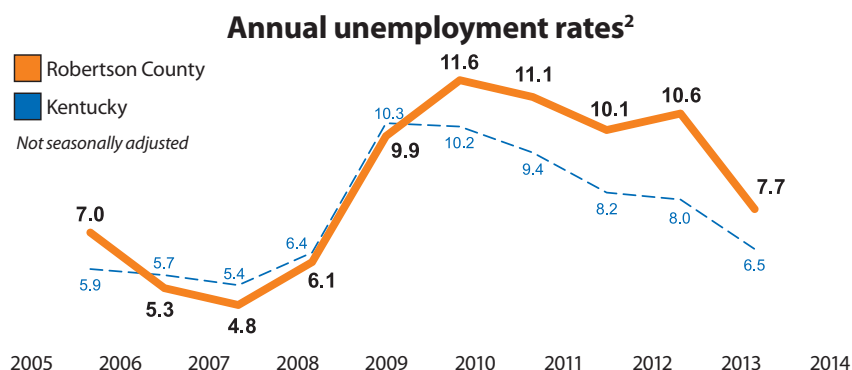

OUR FOCUS

Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) Extension is committed to improving the health and well-being of individuals and families in Robertson County. To help Kentuckians strengthen their financial, physical, and social well-being, our educational programs focus on:

- Making Healthy Lifestyle Choices that influence health and well-being
- Nurturing Families as they cope with fewer resources and more demands
- Embracing Life as We Age to live independently longer
- Securing Financial Stability in a turbulent economic period
- Promoting Healthy Homes and Communities that recycle, reduce waste, and protect our environment
- Accessing Nutritious Food that is affordable, available, and safe
- Empowering Community Leaders as we all work to sustain and improve our communities

In 2014-2015, Family and Consumer Sciences Extension made 14,659 contacts with Robertson County individuals and families.¹

OUR PEOPLE

SPOTLIGHT ON...

NUTRITION PROGRAMS HAVE POSITIVE IMPACT

In 2009, the FCS agent recruited local volunteers to become certified Master Food Volunteers, who were educated using research-based information in the safety, science, and preparation of food. Every year since then, programs designed and implemented by the FCS agent and the volunteers have been offered and they have had positive effects on local youth. Evaluations showed that nearly every participant learned something through the school nutrition programs and cooking classes. Half of the more than 100 youths said they had improved their nutrition, were eating more fruits and vegetables, and were trying new foods.
