SPOTLIGHT ON ...

MAKING HEALTHY LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Helping adults learn about food and nutrition and the benefits of healthy lifestyle choices are the goals of the Boone County Cooperative Extension Service's Friday Food Fun Group. The program brings more than 40 adults together monthly to focus on one issue or topic related to food or nutrition. A written survey assessed the knowledge and behavior changes of those participants. Survey results showed: 96 percent improved their safe food-handling practices; 61 percent made changes to improve their health; and 63 percent eat more fruits and vegetables. Overall, participants have changed their eating habits to include more healthful food choices and may, therefore, end up with fewer chronic diseases and be less of a burden on the health care system.
